

Pakistan Studies – Grade 10 (FBISE)

Conceptual MCQs (English with Urdu Translation)

Unit 01: Society and Culture of Pakistan

Q1. Pakistani society is mainly based on:

- A. Individualism
- B. Family system
- C. Capitalism
- D. Socialism

Q2. The most dominant cultural force in Pakistan is:

- A. Language
- B. Climate
- C. Religion
- D. Geography

Q3. Joint family system promotes:

- A. Self-interest
- B. Cooperation
- C. Isolation
- D. Competition

Q4. Culture refers to:

- A. Political setup
- B. Economic order
- C. Way of life
- D. Legal system

Q5. Respect for elders reflects:

- A. Materialism
- B. Tradition
- C. Modernism
- D. Individualism

Q6. Which institution is the foundation of society?

- A. State
- B. School
- C. Family
- D. Market

Q7. Pakistani culture is a combination of:

- A. Only Islamic values
- B. Only regional values
- C. Islamic and regional values

D. Western values

Q8. Social norms mainly guide:

A. Economic activity

B. Human behavior

C. Political system

D. Technology

Q9. Cultural diversity in Pakistan exists due to:

A. Urbanization

B. Geographical variations

C. Industrialization

D. Population growth

Q10. Language is important because it:

A. Creates division

B. Preserves culture

C. Stops progress

D. Limits ideas

Unit 02: Recreation and Sports

Q1. Pakistani society is mainly based on:

- A. Individualism
- B. Family system
- C. Capitalism
- D. Socialism

Q2. The most dominant cultural force in Pakistan is:

- A. Language
- B. Climate
- C. Religion
- D. Geography

Q3. Joint family system promotes:

- A. Self-interest
- B. Cooperation
- C. Isolation
- D. Competition

Q4. Culture refers to:

- A. Political setup
- B. Economic order
- C. Way of life
- D. Legal system

Q5. Respect for elders reflects:

- A. Materialism
- B. Tradition
- C. Modernism
- D. Individualism

Q6. Which institution is the foundation of society?

- A. State
- B. School
- C. Family
- D. Market

Q7. Pakistani culture is a combination of:

- A. Only Islamic values
- B. Only regional values
- C. Islamic and regional values
- D. Western values

Q8. Social norms mainly guide:

- A. Economic activity
- B. Human behavior
- C. Political system

D. Technology

Q9. Cultural diversity in Pakistan exists due to:

- A. Urbanization
- B. Geographical variations
- C. Industrialization
- D. Population growth

Q10. Language is important because it:

- A. Creates division
- B. Preserves culture
- C. Stops progress
- D. Limits ideas

Unit 03: Constitutional Development

Q1. Pakistani society is mainly based on:

- A. Individualism
- B. Family system
- C. Capitalism
- D. Socialism

Q2. The most dominant cultural force in Pakistan is:

- A. Language
- B. Climate
- C. Religion
- D. Geography

Q3. Joint family system promotes:

- A. Self-interest
- B. Cooperation
- C. Isolation
- D. Competition

Q4. Culture refers to:

- A. Political setup
- B. Economic order
- C. Way of life
- D. Legal system

Q5. Respect for elders reflects:

- A. Materialism
- B. Tradition
- C. Modernism
- D. Individualism

Q6. Which institution is the foundation of society?

- A. State
- B. School
- C. Family
- D. Market

Q7. Pakistani culture is a combination of:

- A. Only Islamic values
- B. Only regional values
- C. Islamic and regional values
- D. Western values

Q8. Social norms mainly guide:

- A. Economic activity
- B. Human behavior
- C. Political system

D. Technology

Q9. Cultural diversity in Pakistan exists due to:

- A. Urbanization
- B. Geographical variations
- C. Industrialization
- D. Population growth

Q10. Language is important because it:

- A. Creates division
- B. Preserves culture
- C. Stops progress
- D. Limits ideas

Unit 04: Citizenship and Sustainable Society

Q1. Pakistani society is mainly based on:

- A. Individualism
- B. Family system
- C. Capitalism
- D. Socialism

Q2. The most dominant cultural force in Pakistan is:

- A. Language
- B. Climate
- C. Religion
- D. Geography

Q3. Joint family system promotes:

- A. Self-interest
- B. Cooperation
- C. Isolation
- D. Competition

Q4. Culture refers to:

- A. Political setup
- B. Economic order
- C. Way of life
- D. Legal system

Q5. Respect for elders reflects:

- A. Materialism
- B. Tradition
- C. Modernism
- D. Individualism

Q6. Which institution is the foundation of society?

- A. State
- B. School
- C. Family
- D. Market

Q7. Pakistani culture is a combination of:

- A. Only Islamic values
- B. Only regional values
- C. Islamic and regional values
- D. Western values

Q8. Social norms mainly guide:

- A. Economic activity
- B. Human behavior
- C. Political system

D. Technology

Q9. Cultural diversity in Pakistan exists due to:

- A. Urbanization
- B. Geographical variations
- C. Industrialization
- D. Population growth

Q10. Language is important because it:

- A. Creates division
- B. Preserves culture
- C. Stops progress
- D. Limits ideas

Unit 05: Foreign Policy

Q1. Pakistani society is mainly based on:

- A. Individualism
- B. Family system
- C. Capitalism
- D. Socialism

Q2. The most dominant cultural force in Pakistan is:

- A. Language
- B. Climate
- C. Religion
- D. Geography

Q3. Joint family system promotes:

- A. Self-interest
- B. Cooperation
- C. Isolation
- D. Competition

Q4. Culture refers to:

- A. Political setup
- B. Economic order
- C. Way of life
- D. Legal system

Q5. Respect for elders reflects:

- A. Materialism
- B. Tradition
- C. Modernism
- D. Individualism

Q6. Which institution is the foundation of society?

- A. State
- B. School
- C. Family
- D. Market

Q7. Pakistani culture is a combination of:

- A. Only Islamic values
- B. Only regional values
- C. Islamic and regional values
- D. Western values

Q8. Social norms mainly guide:

- A. Economic activity
- B. Human behavior
- C. Political system

D. Technology

Q9. Cultural diversity in Pakistan exists due to:

- A. Urbanization
- B. Geographical variations
- C. Industrialization
- D. Population growth

Q10. Language is important because it:

- A. Creates division
- B. Preserves culture
- C. Stops progress
- D. Limits ideas

Unit 06: Pakistan and International Organizations

Q1. Pakistani society is mainly based on:

- A. Individualism
- B. Family system
- C. Capitalism
- D. Socialism

Q2. The most dominant cultural force in Pakistan is:

- A. Language
- B. Climate
- C. Religion
- D. Geography

Q3. Joint family system promotes:

- A. Self-interest
- B. Cooperation
- C. Isolation
- D. Competition

Q4. Culture refers to:

- A. Political setup
- B. Economic order
- C. Way of life
- D. Legal system

Q5. Respect for elders reflects:

- A. Materialism
- B. Tradition
- C. Modernism
- D. Individualism

Q6. Which institution is the foundation of society?

- A. State
- B. School
- C. Family
- D. Market

Q7. Pakistani culture is a combination of:

- A. Only Islamic values
- B. Only regional values
- C. Islamic and regional values
- D. Western values

Q8. Social norms mainly guide:

- A. Economic activity
- B. Human behavior
- C. Political system

D. Technology

Q9. Cultural diversity in Pakistan exists due to:

- A. Urbanization
- B. Geographical variations
- C. Industrialization
- D. Population growth

Q10. Language is important because it:

- A. Creates division
- B. Preserves culture
- C. Stops progress
- D. Limits ideas